

Keith-O'Brien Company

Domestics.

North side of basement. No such department west of Chicago. We intend to make this department a special feature in our house.

It is not our wish to present prices at this time. We prefer that the present week be a continuation of acquaintance-making.

Come and visit us, enjoy sight seeing, find the interesting nooks and sit down and rest awhile. We are glad to make sales, but we are more anxious that our friends—the whole people—feel welcome to come and inspect our new store and tarry with us.

ALL STATEMENTS ARE DEPENDABLE.

We propose to sell goods at reasonable prices. Our relations to the factories will warrant it. We present a few prices today for your consideration. They are worthy attention, for the prices are way down—in some specialties as low as wholesale prices.

A splendid business is being enjoyed. The line comprises fine shoes in all the latest and leading styles.

Ready for Easter

Everything in the picture above is ours except the girl herself—and she works for us. The hat was sketched from a Paris pattern and the gown from an importation displayed in one of the windows.

FURNISHINGS FOR MEN.

Our outfitting department is pre-eminently a store for correct shapes in men's attire. Nowhere in America is there a finer line of goods carried. Critical attention has been given to selections. We expect this department to lead in Salt Lake. Our prices are as they should be—reasonable.

SHIRTS—Men are now looking for new things in shirts. In stock are extensive selections, but if you wish them made our shirt factory will accommodate you. Leave orders with the outfitter.

THE NECKWEAR line affords selections, from good values at low prices to good values in expensive ties. Or we will make your neckwear to order. Do you know what a quarter-size collar is? It is between a half and the regular number. Quarter-size collars are just out. We have them and can fit you. Come in and see them.

WELLOCK GLOVES—A reddish tan and the Noiset in light tans are the swellest things out for Easter.

Call in and see our neck scarfs with broad imperial ends, so tucked as to be nicely tied into four-in-hand or the post shape. White and grey effects prevail.

MILLINERY.

Rear of north entrance.

This department has already won a place in the hearts of women. Exquisite creations direct from Paris are shown. America's leading patterns delight the eye. Our own make, modelled after the patterns are dainty enough to thrill the neatest of dressers. The selections embrace beautiful goods and at reasonable prices. Easter is coming.
